

SOLIDARITY 2011

ONE COMMON VOICE FOR ONE COMMON CAUSE

BEGINS

Tuesday, April 26

ENDS

Thursday, April 28

PLACE

Hyatt Regency Hotel
and Convention Center

Downtown Columbus

EMPLOYER JOB FAIR - STATE HOUSE VISIT - INDEPENDENT LIVING TECHNOLOGY FAIR AND MUCH MORE!

Disability Network of Ohio - Solidarity believes it takes five key services to become gainfully employed, live independently and have full control over your life.

EDUCATION - HOUSING - TRANSPORTATION - LEADERSHIP SKILLS - PERSONAL CARE ASSISTANCE

These five key topics and many more like Independent Living, Legislation, Advocacy, Empowerment and services provided by state agencies will make up the thirty two workshops at Solidarity 2011. Make plans now to attend Ohio's oldest, largest and leading Conference for and by people with disabilities. Attending Solidarity could change your life forever!

POINTS OF INTEREST

STATE HOUSE VISIT - JOB FAIR - 32 WORKSHOPS - TECHNOLOGY FAIR
STATE AGENCIES & NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION INFORMATION BOOTHS
LUNCHEONS - KEYNOTE SPEAKERS - ENTERTAINMENT - NETWORKING.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Dwight Loken, Conference Manager
The Meeting Connection, Inc.
6373 Meadow Glen Drive North
Westerville, Ohio 43082-8299
Phone: 614-898-9361
Fax: 614-898-9364
Email: dnos@the-meeting-connection.com

Tom Fogarty, Chairman
Disability Network of Ohio - Solidarity
8763 Meadowcreek Dr.
Washington Township, Ohio 45458
Phone: 937-439-2818 or 800-863-0344
Email: dnosoffice@aol.com
Web site: www.dnos.org

Solidarity 2011 is a project of Disability Network of Ohio—Solidarity and a collaboration of valuable sponsors of state agencies, corporations and individuals from the state of Ohio such as: The Ohio Rehabilitation Services Commission, The Ohio Buckeye Chapter of Paralyzed Veterans of America and more. If you would like to be a sponsor of this empowering conference, please contact The Meeting Connection or Disability Network of Ohio-Solidarity.